NEWS AND NOTES

The Weatherman Story

Gertrude Galloway, Mark Murray, Earl Day, & Glenn Brunson

Wednesday, October 3, 2013, the Travis Association of the Deaf Senior Citizens (TAD-SC) had a regular meeting at the South Austin Activity Center at 3911 Manchaca Rd. There were 78 members and visitors present. Before the meeting started, there was one speaker, Mark Murray, the KVUE TV weatherman. Mark explained how the weather is made in Austin, Texas. We want to thank him and everyone enjoyed his talk. Refreshments served were candies, cookies, and punch.

Brenda Oates, Janet Morris, & Beth Strain have a good spirit Halloween and served refreshments to the TAD-SC members and guests. Thank you girls!

A good Halloween spirit

Ruth Jones, Mary Whitsit, Connie Griffin, Sandra Turner, Eileen Hurne, Teresa Eckstein, and Judy Thomas.

Richard Barnes, James Baraslev, Leslie Hill, and Alren Whitsit

Vivian Hesser, the Judge gave $10.00 each prizes to Leslie Hill and Eileen Hurne for the best Halloween outfit at the TAD-SC Meeting on October 2nd, 2013. Everyone enjoyed themselves. (Photo by Glenn Brunson)

OCTOBER BIRTHDAYS

Robert Montfort, Sandra Turner, Eileen Hurne, Julie Meador, Teresa Eckstein, and Josephine Loeffler.

Happy 70th Birthday Sally Porter

September 20th, 2013, Friday evening her friends at the Austin Association of the Deaf gave a small surprise birthday party after the games. Beth Strain, Brenda Mills, Ann Horn, and Glenn Brunson danced and sang for her. Morris Porter was not present at party.

Senior Miss Pike County Royalty Pageant

These beautiful ladies participated in the Senior Miss Pike County Royalty held Tuesday, September 17th. The pageant was sponsored by Glenwood Health and Rehab and showcased 13 local beauties including a few comedians and storytellers who participated in the talent show. In the photo, the 10th person from left to right is Doris (Scantlen) Mohlenhoff, TSD'1963. Her husband Theodore Mohlenhoff, TSD'1956 and his wife Doris now live in Glenwood, Arkansas.

She enjoyed the pageant. (Submitted by Doris Mohlenhoff) Congrats!

Ed White

Arkely Wright

Domingo Gloria

October 14-17, 2013, James E. and his wife Ann Marie White went to Las Vegas, Nevada for the Senior Citizens Bowling Tournament.

Arkely Wright of Killeen, Texas, and Domingo Gloria of Temple, Texas, captured the first place in double event with the score of 1369. They are the fourth Texans on the double events in the tournament.

There was a good crowd of bowlers and fans.

The next tournament at the Orleans Casino/Hotel will be on October 15-17, 2014.

James E. White was elected again as the president for three years. (Submitted by Ed White).

IT'S

Banana Lovers Day

Banana plants are grown in just about every tropical place – and make up the 4th largest fruit crop in the world. A plant needs 10-15 months of frost-free conditions to produce a flower stalk. Most varieties will stop growing when the temperature drops below 60 F or above 100 F. High in potassium, bananas are easy to eat and are a great additional to any meal.
