CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON TICKETS SOLD OUT

Austin Association of the Deaf

The Austin Association of the Deaf is thrilled to announce the parking lot renovations are completed. It was under construction for two weeks since September 29th. The TAD-SC and LVDSSM members will be happy to know it is now much safer to park there and walk to the Deaf Club. It was too easy to slip and fall on the old gravel parking lot. Thanks go to the Greater Austin Foundation for the Deaf for this big improvement (Thank you, AAD!)

Morris Porter and Glenn Brunson have known each other over 70 years since first grade in 1944 to 2014. Glenn never knew that Morris was his ex-classmate. Morris Porter went with Sammy Oates, Edwin Easley and Glenn Brunson to build a houseboat at Lake Travis many years ago. We all had fond memories of our good times on that boat.

Robert Edwin Easley

February 27, 1941-October 16, 2014

Robert E. Easley, better known as "Ed", caring husband, father, and friend passed away on October 16, 2014. Ed showed a fullness of spirit and steadiness in his battle with lung cancer. His parents, Henry Grady Easley and Vonnie Juanita Easley preceded him in death.

Ed was born in Brownwood, Texas on February 27, 1941. He graduated from Texas School for the Deaf in 1960. He retired from Texas Education Agency after 32 years, at that time a Supervisor in the publishing department. His passion for BBQing was evident in the delicious beef briskets and rib-eye steaks he prepared for friends and family. Ed enjoyed fishing, hunting and boating trips with his friends and family at Lake Travis and the Hill Country. He had also served as a president of Austin Club for the Deaf. He and his loving wife, Joanne, (pictured above) moved to Fredericksburg, Texas in 2001, enjoying their retirement years together in the town they grew to love. They especially enjoyed taking vacations in New Mexico with their friends, Barbara and Glenn Brunson.

During the past year as his health declined, his wife, Joanne, remained faithfully by his side as his caregiver. In his dying days, he was comforted and assisted by daughters Iris and Roberta, with the support of Hill Country Memorial Hospice. Besides wife Joanne, he is survived by brother Grady (Penny) Easley, sister Juanita Basham, daughters Iris Easley and Roberta Daniels, Stepsons Steve Jacobs, Michael Jacobs (Sandra), Stepdaughter Nancy Lucas (Brett), eight grandchildren, one great grandchild, nieces and nephews, his beloved Corgi, Bemmie, the Brunsons and close friends. During his illness, he expressed gratitude to his family and friends; for a life they helped so much to enrich. "My health may fail, and my spirit may grow weak, but God is the strength of my heart; he is mine forever." Psalms 73:26

The family wishes to thank Dr Matthew Hoermann, Dr. Mark Deleon, Dr. Jay Stauffer, Dr. Michelle Nedelka, Dr. Chalin Brown and their staffs for the excellent care they provided during his illness.

Ed is a person who liked to celebrate life. There will be a celebration of his life at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Hill Country Memorial Hospice, 808 Reuben St., PO Box 835, Fredericksburg, TX 78624. Personal words of comfort may be sent to the family at the online guestbook of www.schaetter.com Funeral arrangements under the direction of the Schaetter Funeral Home, Fredericksburg. RECIPE

Little Smokies Cocktail Sausage Appetizer

By Sandi Goldberg

2 cups (16 ounces) packages cocktail wieners
1 (8 ounces) jar grape jelly

Or

1 bottle 12 (ounces) chili sauce
1 cup grape jelly

Combine grape jelly and barbeque sauce in a slow cooker (or grape jelly, chili sauce)
Stir in the miniature smoked sausage links, making sure that the sauce covers the meat.
Cook on low for 6-8 hours or high, 2-3 hours, heated thoroughly, you may also do this on stove top simmering well 2-3 hours or until needed. The jelly flavor completely melts into a delightful sauce with time so it needs the full time to mix thoroughly.

Or

1 (16ounces) bottle barbecue sauce
1 cup packed brown sugar
½ cup ketchup
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1/3 cup chopped onions
2 (16 ounces) package little wieners
Follow same directions as above.
